Being the manufacturers ourselves, the buyer obtains the watch from first hand. This explains its cheapness.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 11.

UNTIL the break in the Aden cable is repaired we must be content to receive our commercial advices a day later than usual, the Teheran line being unequal apparently to cope with the entire traffic at a more rapid rate of transmission than twenty-four hours between here and London.

The Council draft telegram of yesterday forenoon is to hand certainly; but otherwise the latest subscription messages through Reuter are of Tuesday evening. French Rentes then were quoted ⅛ higher at 110f, but Consols and Rupee Paper were ⅛ lower, owing, no doubt to the unsettled feeling caused by the resignation of the Ministry.

In the London Produce markets on Tuesday the only change was in Linseed, which was 3d. higher in Calcutta, 6d. in Bombay quality.

On Cotton the political situation appears to have exercised a specially depressing influence In Liverpool on Tuesday the sales were only 7,000 bales, and a decline of 1-16d. per lb. was quoted in American both on the spot and to arrive. In New York, too, quotations were 1-16 cents. lower on the spot, and 4 points in futures, and we hear it reported that favourable advices respecting the new American crop are an additional adverse feature. The crop getting a good start might assist the weakness, but it is the unsettled state of matters political and the consequent depression in general business which the value of the staple has to contend with. Healthy plants in America are all very well, but they cannot be made to produce Cotton which will be available to spinners in England and on the Continent of Europe in September and October, when something very close upon a Cotton famine will be experienced, unless prices advance sufficiently to curtail consumption.

The market here is simply stagnant. The season is practically over, and very few people have uncompleted shipments of any importance on their books. The receipts are rapidly contracting to very small limits, the total for the week ending yesterday being only 39,000 bales, and next week they will probably be little if anything over 20,000 bales. Pretty well everything arriving now is going straight into godowns, to be held for sale later on, and it will all be wanted for local consumption, the stocks here being extremely light.

WHEAT is unchanged, except perhaps for Soft Red Ahmedabad, the sales of which are about covered. The price has accordingly receded to Rs. 3-10 ready, Rs. 3-9½ for July delivery. Soft White Pessy is still Rs. 3-10, No. 1 Club Delhi Rs. 3-8 per cwt.

SEEDS are the same. Linseed is firm at previous rates, but the inquiry is not very active, notwithstanding the higher prices quoted in London.

FREIGHTS show daily increasing dulness. The weather is causing a rapid contraction in shipments of produce, and some of the steamers now on the berth would accept low rates to obtain the balance of their cargoes. We quote current rates as follows :—

	Ready.	Forward.
Liverpool Cotton, 23s. 6d.		22s. 6d.
Open Charter	23s. 9d. to 23s.
Havre	23½.	22s. 6d.
Antwerp	23s.	22s. 6d.
Marseilles	28s. 9d.
Trieste-Venice		32s. 6d.

EXCHANGE.—Although the rates obtained for 5 lakhs of Council drafts on Bombay in London yesterday showed an advance of 1-16d. as compared with last week's biddings, the fact of the demand being so limited more than counteracts the effect of it, and the market here has continued dull and tending easier. The absence of bills is the most noticeable feature, and that cannot but continue to exercise a weakening influence. We quote closing rates :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 6 29-32d.	per rupee
Do. Telegraphic	1s. 6 31-32d.	,,
Do. Three months' sight	1s. 6 31-32d.	,,
Credits ,, ,, ,,	1s. 7 1-16d. 3-32d.	,,
France ,, ,, ,,	2 01½	,,

The result of yesterday's biddings in London was the allotment of 5 lakhs of drafts on Bombay at 1s. 6 31-32d., and 1 lakh of wire transfer on Calcutta at 1s. 7 3-32d. The total amount allotted during the week ending on Tuesday evening was 9 lakhs, and the biddings next week will be again for 10 lakhs, plus the present unallotted balance.

Bar Silver in London remains at 49½d. per doz. The Government Gazette published to-day gives the following statement of Silver in the Bombay Mint.

Silver in the Mint on 1st June ....Rs.	73,50,527
Do. received during the week ... ,,	27,91,561
Rs.... ,,	1,01,45,088
New Coin paid during the week ... ,,	24,50,000
Rs.... ,,	76,95,088
Silver Bullion waiting assay ..... ,,	78,29,927
Rs.... ,,	1,55,25,015
Last Week.... ,,	1,24,29,636

GOVERNMENT PAPER has been decidedly weaker owing to the lower prices reported by wire from London. Fours opened at Rs. 96¾, but declined during the day to Rs. 96⅜. Fours and-a-half we still call Rs. 99½ nominal.

SHARES are, generally speaking, very steady, and in the case of Spinning and Weaving Companies values are again mostly Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 better. The definite conclusion of the treaty of peace between France and China is regarded as a favourable feature, and there is in addition every indication of a seasonable and favourable monsoon having set in. Bombay-Burmah Trading shares are back to Rs. 4,175. Kemp and Co., Limited, are up to Rs. 345.

PROBABLE CONSERVATIVE MINISTRY.

LONDON, JUNE 10.

A Treaty of Peace has been signed between France and China.

CHOLERA IN MADRID.

MADRID, JUNE 9.

Cholera has broken out here.

THE FRANCO-CHINESE DIFFICULTY.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

COLOMBO, JUNE 11.

The news from Hongkong regarding the negotiations at Tientsin is contradictory.

It is generally believed that when a definite treaty of peace is concluded it will not be observed by the Black Flags, who have large forces massed on the frontier, resolved to drive back the French.

Very little progress is made regarding the Fournier Treaty. It has been abandoned as the basis of negotiations and the treaty of 1882 by Boursee, admitting the suzerainty of China over Annam, with yearly tribute and a neutral zone along the Red River, has been reverted to.

The situation of the French in Tongking is critical owing to supplies of indifferent food and clothing unsuited to the climate. The Chinese are fully aware of their strength, have improved in fighting qualities, and are better disciplined. It is expected that delays will occur until later in the season.

Fighting recommenced, and the blockade and contraband war are still in force by the French. A British blockade runner, the Waverly, has been captured by the French outside Shanghai with a cargo of specie and ammunition.

Fresh reinforcements are arriving at Saigon and Haiphong.

THE CHINA TEA SEASON.

The tea season in the northern ports has opened. Supplies are more moderate. The quality is not well reported of, and prices are unchanged. Two steamers have left with cargoes of tea. The armed cruisers Rosetta and Glenogle were reported unfit for warfare against the Russians, their guns were inadequate power and range, and they are now loading tea for home.

The Formosa tea season has begun. Leaf is arriving, but no tea lead for packages.

It is also stated that the Turkestanis have rebelled against the Ameer's Governor, Sirdar Isakhan.

Sirdar Dadmahomed Khan, Governor of Jellalabad, has been summoned to Kabul. It is believed this step has been taken because he is closely related to our late envoy. Another Governor is being sent to take his place.

Bazaar rumours here credit the Ameer with transporting his private property to Bokhara.

THE EARTHQUAKE AT KASHMERE.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, JUNE 11.

Official telegraphic news from Srinuggur dated the 9th inst. says that the Resident visited Baramulla and Sopor and is now encamped at the latter place. Reports from the outlying villages received show that there has been great loss of life and destruction of cattle. The ground on both sides of the river is scored with cracks, also the low alluvial hills in the vicinity. The wounded, the number of whom is small, are receiving every attention from the Maharajah's native doctors under the superintendence of Doctor Neve, the missionary doctor. Dr. Leahy takes the worst cases to Srinuggur. The Governor and officials are exerting themselves to the utmost, distributing by the Maharajah's orders money, clothing, and rice.

The Viceroy has telegraphed to the Maharaja expressing regret at the great loss of life and destruction of property.

THE HYDERABAD LIBEL CASE.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SECUNDERABAD, JUNE 11.

The case in which Major Neville charges the Hyderabad Telegraph with libel has been adjourned, pending an application to the Bombay High Court.

To-day Captain Thornton rejected the application made yesterday for an adjournment on behalf of the defence. The magistrate ruled that the Ilbert Act, not having been extended by special notification to Secunderabad, did not apply within this jurisdiction. The inquiry would therefore continue.

A fresh application was immediately made by Mr. Anderson under section 526 of the Criminal Procedure Code for a postponement, to enable the defence to apply to the High Court of Bombay, on the ground of the applicability of the Ilbert Act to the case as argued. It was urged that the Court had no option, but must give a reasonable time under the amended Act.

The magistrate having ruled against him, Mr. Anderson strongly asked for an opportunity of obtaining the decision of the High Court. He submitted that the inquiry would cost thousands of rupees each day of its continuance, and would extend over a considerable period. The defence would certainly apply to the High Court, and if the magistrate's ruling was wrong the whole of the costly proceedings would be vitiated, and have to be recommenced. If the High Court decides that the Ilbert Act applied to Secunderabad, the defendants would also be entitled to a trial by jury.

Mr. Branson opposed the application, but after consulting his client stated that although Major Neville and himself were most anxious that the trial should proceed, they would not offer a decided opposition to the adjournment.

The magistrate adjourned the case for a fortnight on the ground of expediency, having regard to the great expense of the proceedings, the defence undertaking to make an application in Bombay next week, and to ask for a transfer of the summons to Bombay.

A BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.

No date has yet been fixed for the hearing, which will take place in the Suburban Court, Chudderghat, before Mr. VanIngen, about the end of the present month. Damages to the amount of ten thousand rupees are claimed by the plaintiff.

THE Bombay Presidency season reports for the week ending the 9th inst. state that there has been rain throughout the Presidency. Preparations for kharif crops continue in all districts. Kharif sowing is in progress in parts of Dharwar, Kolaba, and Shikarpur. There is scarcity of drinking water in two, and of fodder in three, talukas of Dharwar. There is cholera in parts of sixteen, small-pox in parts of twelve, and fever and cattle-disease in parts of eight districts.

ALTERATIONS have been made in the Civil Leave Code in which Sessions Judges will feel an interest. In most provinces Sessions Judges are required to dispose of certain criminal work at their stations during their periodical court vacations; but the work to be done is often insufficient to require their presence at their stations during the whole vacation. A Sessions Judge or other officer whose works requires him to be present at his station for a portion of the vacation is eligible for privilege leave under the ordinary rules, provided he has not been absent from his station for more than 15 days of the vacation. If he has been absent for more than 15 days, his title to privilege leave is regulated by Rules 1 and 3 under Section 72. In future any officer applying for privilege leave under the ordinary rules must attach to his application a certificate that he was not absent from his station for more than 15 days in any of the vacations included in the period of service by which the privilege leave claimed has been earned.

IT is understood that Brigadier-General Browne has been given full liberty of action as regards the dispersal of the establishment in Hurnai in consequence of the cholera. The Government have been able to do this the more readily as the greater part of the work is being done by contractors. The latter will probably work on as long as possible. Cholera has appeared at Kirta in the Bolan.

IT is stated that the Director-General of the Post Office has in contemplation the introduction of the European system of work in the Money Order Department, as a result of the experience gained during his recent deputation to the Lisbon Conference. In this way, considerable reductions are likely to be made in the Account Branch of the Money Order Office in this country, in addition to those already effected in the executive branch of that department.

A STATEMENT has got abroad that the body of Lieutenant Seymour, who was lately struck dead by lightning, has been exhumed for despatch to England, and a telegram to the Calcutta paper says there is not the slightest truth in the rumour.

DR. AITCHISON, of the Boundary Commission, is reported to have made considerable additions to our botanical knowledge. His researches are said to have been very successful, although he has not yet found the "soma plant." If the Commission were to remain on the ground until this latter discovery had been made, it would be perilous to fix a date for its return.

THE Secretary of State for India has sanctioned the extension of the Kuddapa-Nellor State Railway line from the town of Nellor to the coast. The site for the terminus at the coast is to be selected in conference with the Collector of the district and the Commissioner of Salt Revenue.

INTENDING visitors to Madras may perhaps not be pleased to learn that at no less than eight of the hotels there they will be unable to obtain anything to drink stronger than tea or coffee. Up to the present time the hotel-keepers have paid annually Rs. 50 for a licence to sell liquors, but notice was recently given to them that they would be required to pay Rs. 200 a year for a hotel licence, and Rs. 300 a year for a liquor licence. Thereupon the landlords of eight hotels sent in a joint petition to the Deputy Collector at Madras, pointing out that such an impost was unreasonable. The Deputy Collector replied that he was unable to grant any relief, whereupon the hotel-keepers have declined to take out any licence this year.

LORD DUFFERIN after experiencing the discomfort of the Viceregal Lodge and inspecting the Observatory Hill has decided to renounce the project of improving the present house, and will, when the money is available, build a new residence on the Observatory site, the planning of which will be in the hands of Mr. Irwin. The Pioneer remarks that the local Governments have all managed to find themselves suitable, not to say sumptuous, residences, since the decentralisation of the finances enabled them to do so; and "that it is monstrous that the Viceroy alone should not be properly housed at the place where he regularly spends the greater part of every year."

A REPORT has found its way into one of the English papers that the surprise at McNeil's zareeba was due to the treachery of the Aden camel-drivers." Considering that these unhappy beings were notoriously placed between the devil and the deep sea, being, in the words of an eye-witness, "literally mown down by the fire of our men" as they stood, and being ruthlessly cut down by the Arabs when they ran, it is curious that they should be taxed with having brought on the fight. "If anyone was betrayed," says the Pioneer, "it was surely these unfortunate wretches who, brought out unarmed, were placed in a position where they were equally exposed to the enemy and to their protectors. It is clearly only one more step to the version, which we may hope for the credit of Britain will some day be the accepted one, that the force in the zareeba might have been surprised by the treachery of their camel-drivers, but that the design was foiled by the precautions of Sir John McNeil and the vigilance of the pickets."

THE North Borneo Herald gives an account of a visit to the head-hunting Murats in Brunei Bay, now in rebellion against the Brunei Government. The writer describes how, "armed with only three big bottles of gin and some tobacco," he went to a feast to celebrate the recent taking of a Brunei head. He describes the barbarous ceremonies indulged in, in which women were the chief performers, and adds:—"I could not help pitying the poor women, who have a bad life of it with the Murats. They do all the work during the day, are expected to keep up the head feasts all night, bear children to their lords, and nurse the babies, while in time of war their heads are much sought after by the chivalrous warriors of hostile tribes."

FRENCH diplomatic difficulties at Mandalay, says a Rangoon correspondent, seem to be only beginning with the advent of M. Haas, their Vice-Consul. This gentleman is said to have declined an interview with King Theebaw or his ministers unless he is allowed to follow his own country's customs in the mode of showing respect. He wishes to wear his boots at the interview, and those who know the position held by Burmese Royalty say it would be as much as Theebaw's throne was worth if he gave in a jot in this respect. General Fytche, when he went up to interview Theebaw's father, made a great fuss about what he would do, and declared that he would only go to the Palace booted and spurred as an English general should be. But "Albert the Good," as he was called after his confidential circular to his officers on their private lives, gave in when he reached the capital, and interviewed its King, as all previous British representatives had done, in his stockings. Unless M. Haas does the same, the correspondent adds, French influence will vanish at Mandalay, and Italian and consequently English will be once more in the ascendant.

THE tendency towards a federation of the British Empire is attracting attention on the Continent. The Parisian public are enlightened by M. Edward Hervé, in a book of some size, as to the nature of the Irish question. "La Crise Irlandaise" is the title of the volume, which contains a good deal of information and some strange errors, and is on the whole free from partisan feeling "England," says M. Hervé, in summing up, "brought face to face with certain European complications and certain foreign dangers, might be forced to pacify Ireland at any price, just as Austria in a similar situation was eager to pacify Hungary at any price. We cannot say that such a possibility is probable; but in the existing condition of Europe it certainly is not absolutely unlikely. Another hypothesis, however, offers itself to the mind. The British Empire tends to become more and more a vast confederation of semi-independent States. The colonies of Canada, Australasia, and elsewhere have local Parliaments and responsible Ministers. May not the day come when, in order to maintain a certain unity in this vast empire, it will be necessary to place over all these separate Parliaments a common Senate, where each of them may be represented in fixed proportions? In an organisation of this kind Ireland might be treated like Canada or New South Wales. Ireland might have its own separate Parliament and still be represented in the common Parliament. We must not, therefore, despair of seeing some day terminated by such an arrangement the long quarrel between two countries which nature has intended to live in unison, and which difference of race and religion and manners have placed for many centuries in a state of hostility."

The secretary of the Burmah Trading Company, who was recently brought up at Rangoon on a charge of cheating with reference to a cheque of Rs. 3,000, and whom the jury found guilty of misappropriating the cheque without any benefit to himself or his company, was not acquitted, but the Recorder referred the point to the Special Court. Whether such a finding amounted to acquittal or not, a correspondent remarks, the Special Court found that it did not, and the question of whether the cheque was misappropriated dishonestly is now to be gone into. Moung Oung Ban, the secretary in question, is now in jail for a civil debt, and has filed his application for the benefit of the Insolvent Act. On the criminal charge he has been admitted to bail pending final orders. "It is possible," says the correspondent, "that other criminal charges may result out of the gross mismanagement of the Burmah Trading Company, which is now being wound up in the Recorder's Court. The Burmese have evidently not yet reached that stage of civilisation at which they can be safely trusted to keep accurate accounts of other people's money entrusted to their charge. Moung Oung Ban was allowed to take over Rs. 10,000 of the company's money, and his brother, who was a director, seems also to have borrowed heavily. The best of the joke was that, with all these officers of the company owing it large sums, an attempt was made to get the shareholders to pay a further call of Rs. 20 per share, which would have been unnecessary to meet the liabilities of the concern if the director and secretary paid up what they owe it."

THE alleged insult given by Admiral Crown to the English fleet in Yokohama is forcibly commented upon in the Japan Gazette. Admiral Crown's explanation of having cleared for action was the persistent following of his vessel by the English ships. The neutrality of Yokohama was evidently a small affair in the eyes of the Russian Admiral. A correspondent from Yokohama of the China Mail makes the following mention of the action of Admiral Crown:—

"You will no doubt read of the singular action of the big Russian man-of-war Vladimir Alexmarck, in pointing her guns and torpedo-tubes at the Agamemnon as the latter steamed into port the other day. I did not believe the report when I first heard it. The Englishman has gone down to Yokohama. The Russian Admiral is reported to have said, in reply to Captain Long's remonstrance, that he did not consider any port a neutral one in which neutrality cannot be enforced. This got into the papers; so yesterday morning (Sun) the Agamemnon turned and steamed into harbour and anchored directly in front of the Russian, to show that the Japanese would enforce neutrality if necessary."

LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT IN SIND.

FROM a government Resolution on the result of the elections held in the Hyderabad Collectorate under the provisions of the Bombay Local Boards Act, 1884, it appears that of a total constituency of 5,653 in the Hyderabad District, 2,710 persons, or about 48 per cent. of the entire number, recorded their votes at the election of members for groups of villages. The proportion of voters who voted was largest in the Kandiaro and Tando Bago Talukas where it amounted to 75·7 and 65·7 per cent. respectively: in the Hala, Saktand and Moro Talukas it exceeded 60 per cent: elsewhere it was materially smaller, being least in the Naushahro, Hyderabad, and Shahdadpur Talukas. In the last-mentioned taluka but 25 per cent. of the total number of voters attended the poll. In the Bambora group of Shahdadpur only 9 of 96 persons entitled to a vote exercised the privilege. For 78 seats 355 candidates presented themselves, giving an average of 4½ candidates per seat. The number was greatest in the Tando Bago, Guni, and Dero Mohbat Talukas where it was respectively 58, 49, and 45, and lowest in the Kandiaro Taluka where there were only 12 candidates for 6 seats. In four other talukas the number of candidates did not average 3 per seat.

THE NATIVE PRESS.

THE BIRTHDAY

It is painful to notice that Bombay is swooning every year more unfortunate with regard to the gazetted honours. One Mr. Frooding is said to have obtained the distinction of C.I.E. for having given away in charity a lakh of rupees within the space of ten years. If this be true, we have a right to ask why should not similar distinction be conferred on Messrs. Dinshaw Petit and P. H. Cama, of Bombay? We fully agree with the Bombay Gazette in its temperate protest. Even Colonel Department has been suffering from the latter of honours. In the year [illegible] all the chiefs of the Volunteers in the several parts of India were recognised and honoured, with exception only of Bombay. If any officer of the Volunteer force deserved official recognition for interested services, it is Colonel the Hon. [illegible] legs, who has done such so much for the Volunteer movement as to be called the father of the service. Jam-i-Jamshed.

A FATAL FALL.—A coroner's inquest was held yesterday at the Goculdas Tejpal Hospital, on the body of Nursee Dawjee, aged 17 years. Deceased was a stone-mason employed on the new railway building at Boree-bunder station. On Wednesday evening he fell off a scaffolding, and fractured his skull. He died an hour after admission into hospital. A verdict of accidental death was recorded.

STEALING A SHEET.—Abdoola Hoosain and Assan Mahomed, old offenders, were convicted yesterday by Mr. Webb on a charge of stealing a sheet, and were committed to the next Criminal Sessions. Yesterday morning the first accused was arrested by a sepoy with the sheet under his arm. He said he had obtained it from the second accused; but it turned out that they had taken it off a woman who was lying in a drunken sleep on the footpath in front of the Market.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A coroner's inquest was held yesterday at the J. J. Hospital, on the body of Shaik Elmudwood Shaik Ebrahim, aged 50 years. Deceased was a day labourer employed at the P. and O. Company's Dockyard, Mazagon. On Wednesday evening, while he was returning from work, he was knocked down by a mail phaeton at Lawrence De Lima-street by a runaway horse drawing a mail phaeton. On being removed to hospital, he died the same night. A verdict of accidental death was recorded.

THEFT.—At the Fort Police Court yesterday, before Mr. Webb, Nagoo Pandoo was charged with the theft of sundry articles of wearing apparel belonging to Haji Mahomed Doonia Cazer. The complainant used to hawk the articles about, but one day as he wanted to say his prayers in a mosque he left the bundle containing them outside in a verandah. After saying his prayers and coming out, he found that the bundle had been removed. The accused was arrested while he was selling some of the articles. Being an old offender, he was sent to jail for six months.

A THIEVING COACHMAN.—At the Fort Police Court yesterday, Inspector Saunders charged a coachman named Neesa Nagar, before Mr. Webb, with stealing thirty bundles of grass from his master. The accused was in the employ of a Parsee gentleman named Cawasjee Merwanjee, and was arrested on Wednesday by a sepoy as he was going along the road with the grass. He had avoided the sepoy, but the latter aroused his suspicions. When asked how he came by the grass, the accused stated that he had obtained his master's permission to sell it. On inquiry it was discovered that he had only been authorised to sell the stable litter. He was sentenced to six weeks' rigorous imprisonment.

A CASE OF ABDUCTION.—Vishnoo Sittaram, a goldsmith, residing at Kheswady 3rd Lane, was charged before Mr. Beasley with enticing away and enticing away a married girl named Chundree, aged about 13 years. The case for the prosecution was that on the 4th instant he took the girl away, and secreted her in a room in a chawl at Ramwady. This coming to the knowledge of her husband, he reported the matter to the police, and took measures to recover his wife. The prisoner pleaded that the girl came to him of her own accord. He was sentenced to three months' rigorous imprisonment and to pay a fine of Rs. 50, or, in default, to undergo a further term of six weeks' imprisonment.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS IN BOMBAY.—The total number of deaths registered during the week ended yesterday morning, was 470, being 19 more than in the previous week, 32 more than the week ending 10th June, 1884, and 82 more than the mean of the corresponding period in the preceding five years. During the week 253 births were reported in the different districts of the city. The rate of mortality per 1,000 of population per annum was 27·24 calculated on the increase of population since 1881. There were 112 deaths from remittent fever, being the same as in the previous week, and 7 more than in the same period last year. The deaths from diseases of the respiratory system, diarrhœa, and dysentery were last week 73, 30, and 10 respectively, as compared with 72, 16, and 10 in the same week last year. Eight deaths from cholera were registered last week as compared with 10 in the week previous.

REFUSING DUTY.—E. Samson and eleven other West Indian seamen of the British ship W. H. Cornish, were charged before Mr. Ryan, at the Fort Police Court yesterday, by Captain W. B. Brown with refusing duty on board his ship. Several of the men, it will be remembered, recently successfully charged the chief and second officers and the boatswain with ill-treatment. When asked on what grounds they refused duty, Chambers complained of ill-treatment. Though the men were informed that the second officer, MacDonald, against whom all complained, would leave the ship, they still refused to go on board to work. They wanted the captain and all the officers to leave; that would alone improve matters. They said they knew very well that if they would go on board in the ship—something worse than what they received on the voyage to this port. His worship reasoned with them for a few minutes, but finding them determined to refuse duty, sent them to jail for a week.

ASSAULT.—Charles Guzman and Richard Anderson, seamen, were yesterday brought up on remand and charged before Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee with assaulting William Burns, a private in the 2nd East Yorkshire Regiment, on the night of the 9th inst., at Cammateepoors. It appears that the complainant, the two accused, and two other seamen had been drinking at a tavern, after which they all left together. While passing through Cammateepoors, the four seamen set upon the complainant, and inflicted several blows upon him with their clenched fists. He fell to the ground, and they commenced to kick and beat him. The complainant then managed to get up, and ran to a lemonade shop near by, when he was followed by the two accused and was again struck by them. Two soldiers of the same regiment, named Franklin and Smith, who witnessed this assault, secured the second prisoner, and reported the matter to the police. The accused was arrested as he lay concealed behind the gateway of a house in the locality. He was identified as one of the persons who assaulted the complainant. The two accused stated that they were assaulted by a number of soldiers, and that they had not assaulted the complainant. They called another seamen of their vessel to substantiate their statement, but he said that he had himself been grievously hurt by some soldiers, and knew nothing about what took place between the complainant and the accused. They were fined Rs. 15 each, with Rs. 4-12 as costs.

OLIVER PAIN AT PONDICHERRY.

A PONDICHERRY correspondent writes as follows to the Englishman:—Oliver Pain, the Communist, who is said to have been wandering in the Soudan recently, turned up in Pondicherry a few days ago disguised as a Roman Catholic Priest. He was provided with a letter purporting to have been written by an Egyptian Bishop of the Roman Catholic Church. He presented this letter at the Colonial Mission House; but the Bishop being absent from Pondicherry, and the resident priests, for some reason or other, not having invited him to stay at the Mission, he proceeded to the Vicarage, and introduced himself to the Prefect Apostolique as a priest just arrived from Egypt, where he had been persecuted both by the Madhi and the British. He said he was a Russian by birth; and the Prefect was much taken by his open, frank, and plausible manner. Believing in the tale, he received Oliver into his house, and treated him with much kindness and hospitality. The next morning he accompanied the Vicar to Church, and was invited to take part in the service at early mass; and he actually administered the Holy Communion to several members of the congregation, among whom were three Nuns.

At the conclusion of the service Oliver seems to have been anxious to leave Pondicherry; he expressed a wish to continue his journey by that morning's train; and after a hearty breakfast and the reluctant acceptance of a loan of sixty rupees, which M. M. Corbet insisted upon his taking, Oliver took his departure for parts unknown. Nothing is known for certain regarding his rupture with the Mahdi, but it is confidently reported that they quarrelled; and that fearing the consequences, he made his escape and passed through the British lines in disguise.

THE PADROADO.

A PAMPHLET on the Padroado question has just been published at the Catholic Examiner Press. The conclusion which the author draws from a review of the facts is that the Padroado has no legal or moral claim to exist any longer in British India. What are called the rights of the King of Portugal are merely ancient privileges which have long been deservedly forfeited. Their further continuance is, moreover, incompatible with the social and political circumstances of modern India. The time has certainly arrived for doing away with the evils resulting from the existence of a double jurisdiction in one and the same territory, by abolishing for ever the antiquated Portuguese Padroado. Unity is the special characteristic of the Catholic Church, and should be as strongly impressed upon its government as upon its doctrines and rites. Sooner or later, the Church in India must assume the regular form of the Catholic Church in all countries and its government be vested in a heirarchy, in which Archbishops and Bishops shall replace the Vicars Apostolic. How, in this case, would it benefit the Church or accord with the natural order of thing to assign the highest place in that great hierarchy to Goa, the ruined capital of a fallen empire? Would it be just and proper to establish the Metropolitan See of British India in a little town, which numbers only 7,400 inhabitants, whose trade, glory and power has long passed away, and whose sole title to the notice of the stranger is to be found in her traditions and her ruins? If Goa forfeited a part of the British dominions, her rank in the scale of Indian towns would be a very humble one, indeed; and yet she aspires to be enthroned over a whole empire, which includes such cities as Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, of which the last alone contains a population twice as large as that of the entire Portuguese dominions in India. It could scarcely enhance the dignity of the Catholic Church in India to forego the ancient capital of Portuguese glory, nor could its hierarchy borrow much increase of lustre from the brightest gem in the crown of an insignificant third-rate European power.

We have not minced matters in our use of the pretensions of the Crown of Portugal, for the Government which urges those pretensions is an open enemy of the Catholic Church, and we do not consider it our duty to be sparing in our denunciations of those who seek the overthrow of religion. On the other hand, we have carefully refrained from uttering a word to the disparagement of the Goanese clergy. Among them are many excellent priests, pious, learned, and zealous men, who make very efficient parish-priests.

The expected abolition of the Padroado does not portend injustice or ruin to them. Instead of being dispossessed of their curas, than which nothing is less intended, they will be retained where they are actually working satisfactorily, and others will even be invited to accept pastoral charges, especially in churches, of which the parishioners principally consist of immigrants from Goa. All the benefits derived from the learning, zeal, and energy of European missionaries will thus be combined with those to be expected from the piety and exemplary life of the indigenous and the Goanese clergy. The co-operation and direction of the European clergy are absolutely necessary to the welfare of the Church in India. Were they to be compelled to give up the apostolic work to which their stores, Catholic India would in a few years be brought, under the protecting hand of the King of Portugal, to the same state of desolation as that which reigns to-day in the necropolis of Old Goa, where Colleges, schools, convents, churches and orphanages would crumble away, and there would be none to take up the work of education now so nobly performed by the religious of both sexes. Even the lecture rooms of St. Xavier's College, Bombay, and similar institutions, in which half the youth of Goa now receive their training, would soon be deserted.

The question must be finally solved it is for the Pope alone to decide. The pride of Portugal has hitherto impeded the execution of his measures for the emancipation of the Church from an anomalous position. It may, however, be found practicable to disarm the hostility of Portugal by offering her some honourable concession in recognition of her past services to religion. Thus recompensed, she may be induced to withdraw her opposition and facilitate the removal of the intolerable double jurisdiction by striking off the fetters in which the Royal Padroado has so long held the Church in India.

THE DYNAMITE CONSPIRACY.

THE Press Association has received from an American informant now in England—a source which may be relied on as authentic—the following particulars as to the dynamite conspiracy in America, and the operations of its members in this country. Cunningham and Burton having now been convicted, there is of course no reason why publicity should not be given to the following remarkable disclosures. Miss Cunningham is the son of a tenant farmer, who formerly had a small holding near Cork. When James was about two years old, his father was evicted from the farm, and with his wife and children went to live in a cabin of three months old, had to sleep under a hedge for three nights. In consequence of this exposure the infant died. Some years after this Cunningham's father also died, and Cunningham emigrated to America, where he became involved with certain secret associations through the influence of a young girl named D'Alton whom he knew in Boston, and to whom he was greatly attached. At first in joining these organisations, nothing apparently unreasonable except the use of seditious language, but if the new member is perceived to be one in whom the leaders think they can place reliance he is requested to enter more secret societies. In a quiet talk with two other members of the organisation. If he accepts this invitation he is soon ed, and if found to be sufficiently extreme he is invited to attend a still more secret meeting of the association. At this meeting four masked men assemble to receive the recruit, and an oath is then administered to him which imposes absolute secrecy. After this he undergoes six months' probation, and during that period a "brother," whom he does not recognise to him, is detailed to keep a strict watch upon his movements and note what persons communicate with him. This person then reports to the Centre, and if the report is favourable the recruit is, at the expiration of a short time, is sounded as to his willingness to undertake dangerous work. If he be willing to do so another meeting is appointed at which seven persons are present, all of them with the exception of the man introducing the recruit, being masked
